

Jack Meyer

United States

*Former President, CEO, and CIO,
Harvard Management Company, Inc.
CEO, Senior Managing Partner at Convexity Capital Management LP*

Mr. Meyer is particularly admired for his investment acumen. He co-founded Convexity Capital in 2005, a hedge fund specializing in fixed income and alternative market investments, after his success at the Harvard Management Company, Inc. As President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chief Investment Officer at the Harvard Management Company, Inc., he “took over the school’s $4.7 billion endowment in 1991 and turned it into a $22.6 billion behemoth” (Forbes, 2005). In addition to his successful career in finance, Mr. Meyer serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Boston Ballet. He is known for being a philanthropic leader in the Boston community and also on a global basis. Jack has been a fierce GCI supporter since the beginning, hosting a gathering for GCYS scholars in 2014 and 2015.
