

GCI Alumnus Profile: Then & Now

Alqaim

2018 Fellow | Aga Khan Academy, Mombasa
2023 Mentor

Tanzania

As a GCI Fellow, Alqaim expanded his social enterprise, Hope of Life, in his hometown of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania when he was a student at the Aga Khan Academy, Mombasa in Kenya. Alqaim went on to receive a B.A. in Economics & History from Columbia University. He also studied abroad at Pembroke College, University of Cambridge. Upon graduation, he was a Senior Marshal and recipient of the Charles H. Bjorkwall Prize for unselfish service to the College community. He continues to be engaged in several community service pursuits back home, including mentoring local students and helping them pursue their own social enterprise pursuits.

