

Kathryn Taylor

*United States
Senior Manager,
Programs and Partnerships*

Kate Taylor joined the GCI Team as Senior Manager of Programs and Partnerships in October of 2021. Prior to that, she worked as the Director of the Rasin Center for Global Justice at Westover School, in Middlebury, CT. In that role, she created the Center as a way to institute collaborative student-centered awareness and advocacy work in the areas of Service Learning, Environmental Sustainability, Diversity & Inclusion and Global Programs. Kate also directed efforts to support the school's international students, co-chaired the White Anti-Racist Educators' group on campus and recently was awarded the Margaret Love Stevens '49 Award for Moral and Ethical Education. She previously worked at two other schools, School of the Holy Child, in Rye, NY and St. Andrew's School, in Boca Raton, FL, providing her with two decades of experience with Residential Life, teaching courses in ethics, human rights and social change, and curating experiential learning programs around the globe.

Kate holds a BA, cum laude, in Religious Studies from Vassar College, a graduate certificate in Religious Studies from Florida International University and a MA, with a Gold Medal of Excellence, from Sacred Heart University.
