

Linda Hill, Ph.D.

*United States
Faculty Chair, Leadership
Initiative, Harvard Business School*

Dr. Hill is the Wallace Brett Donham Professor of Business Administration at the Harvard Business School and chair of the Leadership Initiative. She is regarded as one of the world's top experts on leadership and was named by Thinkers50 as one of the top ten management thinkers in the world. Hill is the author of several award-winning articles and books including Collective Genius: The Art and Practice of Leading Innovation, Being the Boss: The 3 Imperatives of Becoming a Great Leader and Becoming a Manager: How New Managers Master the Challenges of Leadership.

Dr. Hill co-founded Paradox Strategies—an advisory and research firm that advises organizations and boards on leadership, innovation, and diversity and inclusion. Hill is co-creator of the Innovation Quotient and re:Route and she co-founded InnovationForce, a SaaS company using AI and machine learning to accelerate the process of innovation.

Hill is a member of multiple boards, strategic committees and advisory councils including Relay Therapeutics, the ArtCenter College of Design and of Brigham & Women's Hospital, Team8 Fintech Strategic Committee, the American Repertory Theater, the Aspen Institute Business and Society Program, the California Institute for Telecommunications and Information Technology (Calit2), Eight Inc., the Morgan Stanley Institute for Sustainable Investing, and the United Nations Institute for Training and Research.

Professor Hill completed a post-doctoral research fellowship at the Harvard Business School and earned a Ph.D. in Behavioral Sciences at the University of Chicago. She has a BA, summa cum laude, in psychology from Bryn Mawr College.

PHONE

203-542-7002

ADDRESS

2 Sound View Drive, 2nd Floor
Greenwich, CT 06830

EMAIL

info@globalci.org

