

GCI Alumnus Profile: Then & Now

Aziza

2015 Fellow | King's Academy
2018 and 2024 Teaching Assistant

Afghanistan

Aziza is dedicated to empowering women by helping them find their voices and be heard through education and legal equality. She graduated from Bryant University in Rhode Island in 2021 with a major in Business Administration and a minor in Legal Studies. Since graduation, she has worked as a legal assistant in immigration and family law and explored different exciting opportunities in the legal field. Currently, Aziza is pursuing her MBA from Boston College Carroll School of Management. She is also passionate about soccer, particularly how it unites people from different cultures, languages, and backgrounds.
